

254 LATE WORK

In the event that a student does not do their homework, they will be sent to study hall to complete the work. They will be graded on the work they complete during that time. The maximum score they can receive is a 75% (or C). It is the student's responsibility to turn the work in immediately following study hall.

In the event that a student has not completed a long term assignment (i.e. project, writing assignment) on its due date, they will be sent to study hall to complete it. They will be graded on what they complete during study hall. The maximum score they can receive is a 75% (or C). It is the student's responsibility to turn the work in immediately following study hall.